HECA CONFERENCE 2008

University of Tampa -- <http://www.ut.edu/gallery/index.html>

This is a rather impressive collection of well over 100 photos covering everything related to the school. This is incredibly user-friendly. TOP MARKS

Eckerd College -- <http://www.eckerd.edu/tour/index.php?f=home>

Photos are not nearly as impressive. They are small and can only be viewed one at a time. Viewer must go step by step through system.

New College -- http://www.ncf.edu/Admissions/virtualtour/nc_vt_jump_page.html

Not a bad feature, as it does let you move through the selections quickly. But you can't see many images until you click on extra choices.

Ringling College of Art and Design – Photo Tour: <http://www.ringling.edu/?id=92>

Virtual Tour:

<http://www.ecampustours.com/VirtualTours/Default.aspx?FafsaCode=012574&login=false>

Photo tour has 33 shots of the campus and 63 of student portfolios. The virtual tour is that of eCampusTours.

University of South Florida -- <http://usfweb2.usf.edu/tourusf/>

This is rather interesting as it gives you an interactive map that shows dotted lines at to where you are moving around the campus with each new photo.

This was a particularly informative tour as more than just general information is provided. You can move about within the tour and link to new sites.

Beacon College -- <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ki0Y6lsqgPQ>

They don't have an online photo tour, but they did commission this video that was created last summer. It is seven and a half minutes long.

Rollins College -- http://www.rollins.edu/tour/index_flash.htm

You need Quicktime to view the short video clips of each location.

These include various pictures from different aspects of their campus.
